

Please do not change the NO CALL list. My husband and I work various shifts so we sleep at different times. Not having the phone ring because of tele-marketers is a blessing. We have elderly parents who need to be able to get a hold of us in case of an emergency so turning the phones off is not an option.